THIS BOOK BELONGS TO

Becca Lou and her barnyard crew, love their new magical mountain home.

There were so many exciting sights and sounds and places they could roam.

Aside from all the games to play and amazing sights to see, there must have been 100 or more brand new friends to meet.

First, we met a gopher named Dusty Prairie Dog and Dusty's best pal Blair, a mild-mannered hog.

Dusty loved digging tunnels underneath the ground
standing on his tippee toes and looking all around.

Blair loved eating mushrooms,
roots and grubbs he dug,
beetles bugs and earthworms
and other yuckie stuff.
