KENNY HESS

Becca Lou and all her friends were talking one sunny day.

They were trying to name all their favourite games they really loved to play.

Becca said, "I love playing guitar more than anything, in fact I'd play all day everyday if I had someone who could sing."

Ricky Bobby said, "I sing rock and roll and hip hop, techno and country too.
Hey Becca we should start a band man... that's exactly what we should do."

Becca Lou said, "I'm in
if I can play guitar.
But we're gonna need
some instruments
and Ricky Bobby,
you can be the star."

Bobby said, "Don't you worry
I've got instruments galore, my parents used to have a band and a little music store."
